

Vanessa Lawrence gave the closing remarks.

The Government of India were thanked for bringing the Great Arc to Jesus Green for the start of the Conference.

The award for most entertaining speaker went to Bryson Morebodi of Botswana
The award for best paper went to Siva Kumar of Inida

Vanessa invited Santiago Borrero to address the conference.

Santiago presented an Aide Memoire – a series of ideas put forward by a number of people to take forward over the next 4 years (see PowerPoint file)

An amendment was added for all NMOs ‘to ensure the promotion of geography to those organisations responsible for the education of our children’.

Vanessa encouraged the delegates to add any comments, on the venue and format of the next conference, to the feedback forms in their delegate packs.

Vanessa thanked all the chairs, speakers, the staff, the sponsors:

ESRI
Leica
Laser-Scan
Intergraph
Oracle

and all the exhibitors.

Finally, she thanked everyone for coming and wished them all a safe journey home.
